Policy Statement

Hull Collegiate School is committed to taking the necessary steps to safeguard and promote the welfare of its pupils and we undertake to look after safely any pupil who is not collected from school at the appointed time.

The school will make every reasonable attempt to contact the parents (or other nominated carer) but if there is no response from any of the contact or emergency numbers provided to the school, the school will contact the relevant Social Care Duty Officer who will be responsible for making emergency supervision arrangements for the pupil. This may involve contacting the Police.

The school is sympathetic to the parent/guardian of a pupil who, where the circumstances are exceptional, is not collected at the appointed time. However, Hull Collegiate School reserves the right to charge a fee for late collection to cover the additional time worked by our staff.

Procedures

These procedures are intended to ensure that pupils at Hull Collegiate School are looked after safely in the event a pupil is not collected at the appointed time. Initial procedures may vary according to the age and maturity of the pupil and the time of day (see sections below), but under no circumstances will a member of staff go to look for a parent or take the pupil home with them.

After making every reasonable attempt to contact the parents (or other nominated carer), and if there is no response from any of the contact or emergency numbers provided to the school, the relevant Social Care Duty Officer (or whoever is relevant – see key personnel section) must be contacted and it is they who will be responsible for making emergency supervision arrangements for the pupil.

A full written report of an incident of an uncollected pupil is always made to the Headteacher/Headteacher, Prep School and, where appropriate, Ofsted is informed.
